

Cancellation Policy

Lotus Love Yoga classes, workshops, retreats and events are uniquely created with choreographed sequencing, music and yoga philosophy. Time and energy are lovingly given to sustain the consistency, creativity and depth of my classes.

Lotus Love Yoga is well-attended and I always honour your bookings. However, last minute cancellations mean that other yogis are unable to experience the class and I am unable to advertise your place. Therefore, I have a cancellation policy to ensure that all bookings are honoured.

Classes

Yoga classes cost £10 to drop in. If you cancel your booking less the 24 hours before the class takes place, your session is still paid for.

You can also book and pay for one month of yoga classes in advance, each session costing £8. If you do not attend one of your sessions, the class is still paid for. You cannot refund or transfer your booking to an alternative date.

Workshops and Events

Workshops and events are paid for in full at the time of booking.

If you cancel your space less than ten days before the workshop takes place, your payment cannot be refunded or transferred to an alternative event.

Retreats

Retreat deposits are non-refundable.

If you cancel your place ten weeks before the retreat date, you will be refunded 50% of the total retreat price.

If you cancel your place five weeks before the retreat date, the retreat is paid for in full.

With Love and Gratitude!
